

Katey Weaver is the National Director for Integrated Behavioral Health for AmeriHealth Caritas. In this role, Ms. Weaver offers behavioral health expertise and supports and leads integrated medical management departments across the AmeriHealth Caritas Family of Companies. Ms. Weaver has more than 15 years of experience in behavioral health managed care at AmeriHealth Caritas. She has worked on multiple lines of business, including commercial and Medicare plans. She is responsible for generating and leading key integration initiatives that have strategically positioned AmeriHealth Caritas as a fully integrated managed care model with innovative and unique solutions for customers and members.

Ms. Weaver traveled around the world as the child of an American diplomat,. She gained an appreciation of diverse cultures and became fluent in Spanish as a result. In her direct practice, Ms. Weaver focused much of her work on Hispanic families. She has served as an advocate, housing counselor, case manager and therapist, and has worked in the housing, family preservation, and community-based mental health services fields. Since joining AmeriHealth, Ms. Weaver has authored and presented multiple trainings regarding integrated services for Care Managers across the AmeriHealth Caritas Family of Companies, including “Introduction to the Four Quadrant Model of Integrated Care Management,” “Medical Conditions and Co-Morbid Depression,” and “Medical Co-Morbidity in those with a Serious Mental Illness.” Most recently, Ms. Weaver implemented an enterprise-wide Motivational Interviewing Program. By the end of 2016, all Care Managers across the company were trained in the use of Motivational Interviewing, which focuses on addressing behavior changes to improve overall health. The company has also developed an AmeriHealth Caritas Motivational Interviewing training and auditing program for ongoing use.

Ms. Weaver is a licensed social worker in Pennsylvania. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology from the College of William and Mary, a master’s degree in social work from Temple University and a Masters in Business Administration from the York College of Pennsylvania. From 2010 – 2014, Ms. Weaver served as the secretary of the board of directors of the Latino Hispanic American Community Center in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.
